FALL PROGRAM GUIDE 1996

...and declaring war on false metal.

MONDAY

3am til 6 am

Dawn stays up way past her bedtime and jeprodizes her artistic and academic career for your early morning rock and roll satisfaction.

8 am til 10am
The crossroads where Amerindie and Britpop meet, it's two hours of music chock full of hummable hooks and entrancing melodies. Some Big Star, a bit of Suede, splashes of Jonathan Richman and healthy helping of the Replacements. It's a dish that one can't miss, to good to be true and good for you too. Tune in to Teichman and see what indie pop is about.

4p.m. til 6p.m.
Chanda
Flowin' free underground rock, tempered with vibes that will keep your fall hardcore, mellowly pleasant, and revolving.

6 p.m. til 8 p.m.
The Chris and Chris show
One show, two guys named Chris. Funny guys named Chris, nonetheless whose show is a mix of talk; featuring guest stars, interviews and the like; and music. A WBGU classic.

8-10 p.m.
MY SO CALLED RADIO SHOW
this is the story of a confused young boy who's not sure if he's coming or going. but one things for sure, he's gonna fuck shit up in the time he has left. he's not going to be silent and he won't stop until some real damage is done..... sometimes the revolution is soft and pretty and sometimes it can cut you like a knife. collide into the gender(@#k generation as THIS girl/boy revolution continues.

TUESDAY

12 noon til 2 p.m.
MIKE and MOLLY'S RADIO LUNCH

AS THE MARTIAN ANTHROPOLOGIST SKIRTS EARTH'S STRATOSPHERE, SHE DISCOVERS 'HIP,' VIA RADIO WAVES, WHICH SHE LATER DOCUMENTS AS 'A PERFECT SPECIMEN OF INDIE ROCK COLLEGE RADIO, A POWERFUL GROOVE.'

4-6p.m.
The Blood and Gore Show:
Your average garden variety In-D RoK show with a weekly in studio guest poet or fiction writer who will read their work live on the air.

6 pm til 8 pm
More Than Music
Political discussion, lecture, and recipe for social change through activism, awareness, and building community. Much more relevant than the new Possum Dixon album.

8pm til 9pm
Informational hour on one band of no particular genre. Hosted by DJ Smart Alec w/ special guests. Possible shows: Versus, Sugarhill Gang, Can, Clash, Palace Music, Pavement, Sex Pistols and GG ALLAIN (If anyone can find Clean GG stuff.)

Women's Music
Sundays and Fridays 2-4 p.m.
The best in women's music from all over the globe.

WEDNESDAY

10 a.m. til 12 noon
Buttload o' rawk more energy than a double latte. regulars include silkworm, karate, engine kid, new bomb Turks, unsane, as well as phat new tunes and requests o' plenty.

4 pm til 6 pm
industrial/punk/hardcore underground stuff with an old underground streak, courtesy of stefoni bavin

6 pm til 8 pm
"In God We Trust," is hosted by the universal lubricant Reverand Money. Two hours of the Lord's prayer, donations and prayer requests welcome. File Under: Christian Theology

8 pm til 10 pm
FOCUS
A New program here at WBGU, a different very special DJ every Wednesday night pays a two hour musical tribute to an influential artist or era of his choice. Upcoming shows include Tom Waits, Glam Metal, SST bands, Bikini Kill, They Might Be Giants, Severed Heads, and many more.

THURSDAY

3am til 6 am
Bowling Green Up All Night with Eric.
Playing the finest sounds of punk, emo, ska, reggae, and indie rock strictly for the kids.

4 pm til 6pm
Through Being Cool
Does the frenetic pace of trying to keep up with the "in crowd" leave you weary? Give up the Quest for Ultimate Hipness -- relax, and tune in to "Through Being Cool." Rob will entertain you with a diverse blend of sounds, ranging from breezy, melodic pop to hair-raising distortion. Listen as music becomes recontextualized before your very ears -- rediscover connections between rock and folk, hip-hop, country, blues, or world music. Break down barriers. Destroy genres. Come one, come all -- because music is too important to divide us.

FRIDAY

10 am til 12 noon
A rock show, mostly independent, some obscure and abrasive, but mostly nice music to wake up to on friday mornings. Host is Dan Horvath and he will play most any request.

4 pm til 6 pm
Jennifer's Show
Start your weekend off right with some Friday afternoon indie rock. If you're dying to hear bands like The Stinky Puffs, Beat Happening, Sleater-Kinney, TRUE82, Jad Fair and Tiger Trap, then check out my show. If you're lucky, you can catch one of my cheesy theme shows. In the past I've done shows about colors, women in rock, kids, food, and crush songs. Listen and you may be converted.

6 pm til 8 pm
GREASE. LOVE. AND TONGUE
A punk show not afraid of showing its asoft side, the fusion of indie-rock, punk, emo, and whatever punk genres this subculture can invent. (We'll keep up.

SATURDAY

6 pm til 8 pm
The Anti-Rock Hour--
Live talk with host Mike Wendling. guets will be important and interesting figures in and around b.g.--the mayor, council members, university people, club presidents and just all around intersting people who happen to pass through our neck o' the woods.

8 pm til 10 pm
The Fat Albert Show
Fat Albert brings toe tapping tunes, sweet melodies, and comic relief to all the unstable generates(meant as a compliment) out there. If you're in the mood to skank, mosh(yuk), bounce, throb , fly wobble, hide, ect.. then tune in....most likely Fat Albert will accomadate you.

10 pm til midnight
The Sheltering Sky
with Doug Maynard features progressive rock and related music (fusion, ambient, metal prog, avant garde, etc.) from the late 60's up to the present, from prog giants (Yes, Genesis, King Crimson, etc.) to lesser known artists from all over the world. Tune in and cure those album-oriented rock blues!

SUNDAY

3 am til 6 am

Once again you nightowls can join the party. Tune in to Mike Hammer's party, in the wee hours of the morning. Indie rock with a little hardcore and maybe even some punk and a lot of ska to top it alloff. You think you got nobody to talk to, you got a friend in me. For quality entertainment and weird and twisted commentary, the buck stops here.

8 pm til 10 pm
Music from the Civil War Era
two hours of music from the late 1960's that caprture the esscence of the era of unrest.
